HOW IT WORKS

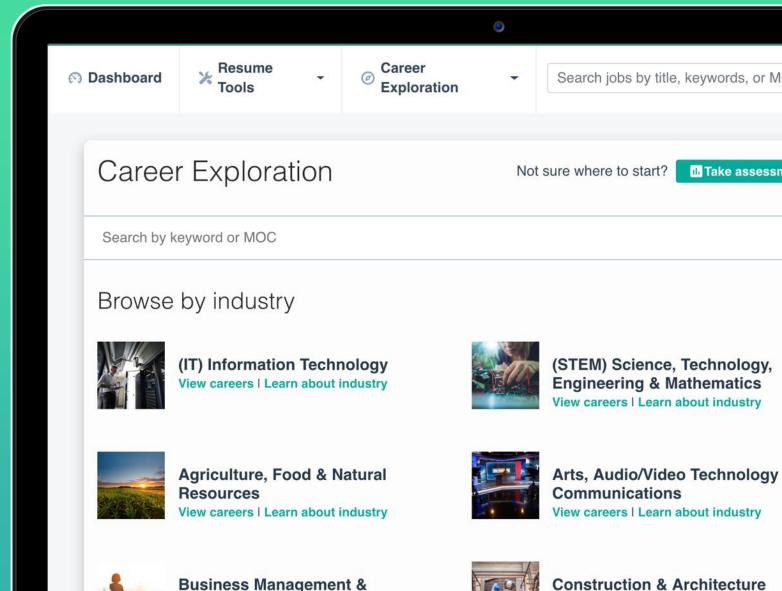

Job Seekers

Exploration & Pathways

You are more than your resume.

Our platform allows job seekers to explore careers they're interested in – and get connected to the requisite education and training for each job so you can make the best decision.

Skills & Interests

You are more than your resume.

We also dig deeper to help point you toward a rewarding next step. What do you like to do, what are your passions, skills and interests? We take that all into account when matching you to potential careers.

Career Matching Profile

Your Profile communicates what your competencies are directly to employers.

When Job Seekers build a profile on our platform, they are marketing their skills and experiences to potential employers and in real time are matched to open positions.

Company Profiles

Your company is awesome. Showcase it on Pipeline AZ.

Our platform allows all companies to talk directly to job seekers about what it is like to work at their organization and what makes their company unique.

University of Phoenix®

of Phoenix in 1976 in response to the changing needs of the workplace. It was part of his commitment to provide adults with the higher education they would need to fill those needs and for forty years, that's exactly what we've done. The times have changed, but our objective has remained the same – to help people enhance their lives through education.

Culture

We provide employees with a positive working environment, a competitive benefits package and the opportunity to contribute to accessible higher education. It takes a variety of specialists to operate, maintain and innovate everything from information technology to curriculum development for the nation's largest private university. Software engineers, student services coordinators, marketing professionals and business analysts are all necessary.

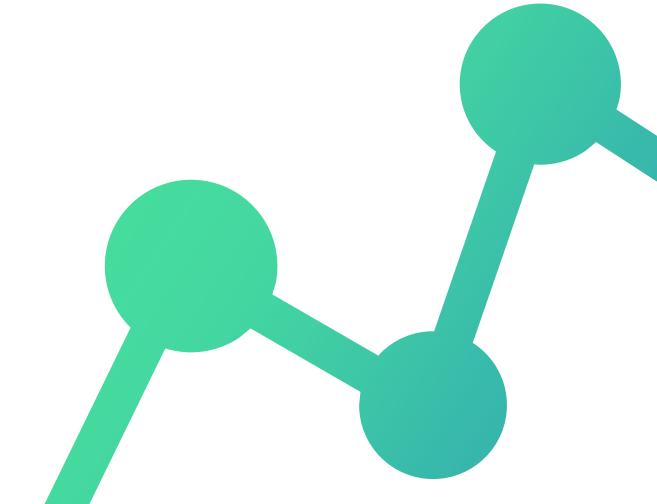

Unlimited, free Job postings

Match to job seekers with the skills your role requires

As soon as you post an open position, our platform automatically matches you to all job seekers in the community who align to your specifications so you can make a better decision on potential candidates.
